Hinkley Senior Earns Prestigious Boettcher Scholarship

Hinkley High School senior Scarlett Jimenez earned a 2013 Boettcher Foundation Scholarship, which provides a “full-ride” merit-based financial award to attend any college or university in Colorado.

Jimenez, who attended Elkhart Elementary School and East Middle School, is president of the Student Council and National Honor Society at Hinkley. Upon graduation, she plans to pursue a degree in political science at the University of Denver.

Now in its 60th year, the Boettcher scholarship program has awarded more than 2,200 scholarships, with more than $3 million paid out each year, placing the program among the largest merit-based scholarship programs in the nation.

APS Names Superintendent Finalists

The Aurora Public Schools Board of Education recently released the names of four finalists for the position of Superintendent of Schools.

The finalists include Tracy Ann Dorland, the deputy chief academic officer for Teaching and Learning for Denver Public Schools; John Randal (Randy) Johnson, instructional superintendent for Denver Public Schools; D. Rico Munn, a litigation partner at Baker and Hostetler, LLP; and Thomas G. Seigel, superintendent of Bethel School District No. 403 in Spanaway, Wash. The new superintendent will join APS on July 1, 2013.

All finalists will visit Aurora on April 5 for media interviews and a tour of the school district and city. On April 6, finalists will participate in additional interviews conducted by the APS Board of Education and two committees made up of staff, students, parents and community members.
