Pickens Technical College: Education That Works

Are you seeking an opportunity to acquire state-of-the-art skills, knowledge and work habits that will help you succeed in the workforce? If so, Pickens Technical College is the place for you!

- Accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools as part of the Aurora Public Schools and the Colorado Community College System
- Nearly 50 certificate programs for adults and high school students, including Cosmetology, Arts, Media, and Communication, Human Services, Engineering and Technology and much more
- More than 150 knowledgeable and caring staff members
- Flexible class schedules, including evening programs, to accommodate all lifestyles

Pickens can help put you on the path to your dream career.

For more information about programs, admission process and financial aid, call 303-586-4042 or visit pickenstech.org.

2014 Community Update
Now Available

The Aurora Public Schools Community Update is now available at aurorak12.org/update. This update provides information about student academic progress, including TCAP results, School Performance Framework reports and teacher quality data for the 2013-14 school year.

If you would like a printed copy of the data, contact the APS Communication Department at 303-365-7805.