Aurora Community Elects New Board Members

Congratulations to the APS Board of Education members who were elected on Nov. 3.* Incumbents Dan Jorgensen and Cathy Wildman have maintained their seats on the Board. One new member, Monica Colbert, will be joining the seven-member Board.

APS thanks outgoing Board member Mary Lewis for her eight years of hard work and dedication to our students, staff and community.

The APS Board of Education is a group of citizens elected by voters to provide leadership and establish policies for the school district. The seven-member board is elected at-large. Members serve four-year terms and receive no monetary compensation.

Board meetings are generally held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 6 p.m.

*Based on election day results. Final election counts are being certified by Adams and Arapahoe counties.

American Education Week: Nov. 16-20

Aurora Public Schools will join districts across the nation to celebrate American Education Week, Nov. 16-20. This is a time to honor educators who work diligently to ensure students receive a quality education.

We encourage you to participate in American Education Week, sponsored by the National Education Association, by expressing gratitude to the teachers, support staff and parents in your lives who are making a difference.

Thank you, APS educators, for helping every student shape a successful future.
